2. Evaluation by criteria - in accordance with the evaluation criteria set out in section II.7.1, the Contracting Authority will calculate the number of points for each bid.
3. Substantive evaluation - The offer, which obtained the highest number of points (according to II.7.1), is subject to substantive analysis in order to verify the compliance of the offered products with the technical specification presented in Appendix No. 1. During the offer analysis, the Ordering Party may ask the Bidder for additional explanations or supplements, if the information contained in the offer does not allow for objective evaluation of the offer. The Ordering Party shall reject the offer of the Bidder who has not submitted explanations within the set deadline (min. 2 days) or if the evaluation of the explanations confirms that the offer does not comply with the technical specification. In this situation, the Ordering Party shall evaluate the next bid in order according to the score obtained according to item II.7.1. The Ordering Party reserves the right to extend the time for submitting supplements/clarifications.
4. Formal evaluation - the Ordering Party shall examine whether the offer which obtained the highest number of points and passed the substantive evaluation satisfies the formal conditions specified in the Request for Tender. The Ordering Party may call upon the Bidder to supplement formal deficiencies of the offer or to submit explanations regarding formal issues. The Ordering Party shall reject the offer of the Bidder who did not submit supplements within the set deadline (min. 2 days) or if the received response confirms that the offer does not meet formal conditions. The Ordering party reserves the right to extend the time for the submission of supplements/clarifications.
5. The bid which obtains the highest number of points and which is in line with the content and meets the formal requirements will be deemed the most advantageous.
6. Following the evaluation of the bids, the Ordering Party will inform the Bidders by e-mail of the selection of the most advantageous bid.

7. The Ordering Party rejects a bid if:
 - a) its content does not correspond to the content of this request for proposals or is incomplete,
 - b) its submission constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of the rules on unfair competition,
 - c) The bidder did not submit clarifications/additions to the Ordering Party request regarding the content of the submitted bid,
 - d) was submitted by a Bidder who does not meet the criteria for this procedure or by a Bidder who is excluded,
 - e) is invalid under separate provisions.

- c) have failed to demonstrate that they meet the conditions for participation in the procedure,
- d) have a personal or capital relationship with the Ordering Party.

The bid of an excluded Bidder shall be considered as rejected.

II.7 Criteria for bids evaluation

The Ordering Party shall evaluate the submitted bids according to the following criteria:

1. Criterion - Price - weighting of 90 points.

The number of points for the price criterion will be calculated according to the following formula (counting to two decimal places):

$$\text{Number of points.} = \frac{\text{minimum bid price PLN net}}{\text{price of the tested offer PLN net}} \times 90 \text{ pts.}$$

2. Criterion - Delivery date for the subject matter of the contract - weighting of 10 points.

The number of points for the criterion, will be awarded according to the following guidelines:

up to 10 days - 10 points.

11 to 20 days - 6 points.

21 to 30 days - 1 point.

more than 30 days - 0 points.

The date of delivery shall be determined by the Bidder in the bid form (Appendix 1) in item 4.1 for package I and 4.2 for package II.

1. The evaluation will be based on the net bid price in the Polish zloty (PLN). In the case of bids submitted in a currency other than the Polish zloty, the average exchange rate of the National Bank of Poland as of the last day for the submission of bids with an accuracy of 4 decimal places will be used for currency conversion.

2. The most advantageous bid will be the one that meets the conditions specified in in points. II.2., II.3, II.7, which will obtain the highest number of points.

SECTION III: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

III.1 Forms of communication

1. All correspondence related to the preparation of tenders, including formal and substantive questions, should be sent by e-mail to Klaudia Łozińska at e-mail address: k.lozinska@captortherapeutics.com
2. The Ordering Party will answer questions up to 3 working days from receipt of the enquiry. Provided that questions are received no later than 3 working days before the date of submission of tenders (the period of 3 days does not include the day of submission of tenders). When calculating the deadline from the date of the question, please note that the day on which the question is received is not included - the first day of the deadline is the next working day after receipt of the question. The deadline ends on the last working day. Answers will be provided by the Ordering Party by e-mail.
3. The Ordering Party reserves the right to extend the response time and the possibility of extending the deadline if the answers to the questions or issues raised involve a change to the terms of the Order.

III.2 Order execution period

1. The execution of orders will start after the signing of the contract, from the date of placing the first order. Orders will be fulfilled during the term of the contract, in accordance with the delivery date declared by the Bidder in the Bid Form.
2. Term of the contract: The contract is concluded for the period from the date of signing the contract until the execution of the order.

III.3 Important provisions for the parties

1. Once the results of the enquiry have been completed and made public, the Ordering Party and the Bidder will sign an appropriate contract. The model contract is attached as Appendix No. 2 to this Request for Quotation. The selected Bidder shall be obliged to sign the contract within 7 days from the date of receipt of the invitation to sign the contract from the Contracting Authority. If the Bidder, whose bid was selected as the most advantageous, evades to sign the contract, the Ordering Party may select the next most advantageous bid from among the remaining bids.

2. The Ordering Party reserves the right to amend the contract concluded with the Bidder selected in the tender procedure, in case of occurrence of at least one of the circumstances listed below, taking into account the conditions for their introduction:

2.1 The completion date of the contract may change in the following situations:

- a) the occurrence of force majeure, preventing the timely performance of the subject of the Contract, whereby the Bidder shall be obliged to inform the Ordering Party and specify the force majeure causing the impossibility of timely performance of the contract and indicate the impact that this event has had on the course of performance of the contract
- b) the occurrence of extraordinary circumstances, other than force majeure, preventing the timely performance of the subject of the Agreement, which the Parties, exercising due diligence, did not foresee at the conclusion of the Agreement and are not at fault of the Parties;
- c) suspension of the execution of the contract by the Ordering Party due to the occurrence of technical or organisational reasons which make it impossible to continue the execution of the subject matter of the Contract, by the time of suspension. Ordering Party shall notify the Bidder of the suspension of the contract execution, indicating the reason for the suspension;
- d) the occurrence of changes in the project timetable.

The aforementioned changes may not constitute grounds for an increase in remuneration. Any of the above changes may be associated with a reduction in remuneration.

2.2 The Ordering Party shall allow for the possibility of introducing changes to the subject matter of the Agreement or for the Ordering Party to abandon the execution of a part of the subject matter of the Contract in the event of:

- a) Where, for reasons of extreme urgency and after analysing the test results the Ordering Party decided to change the method (for example purity; amount of final product), In such cases Parties may add it to the contracts. All changes mentioned in the preceding sentence may constitute grounds for increasing the remuneration and explanation with proper calculations which directly indicate the amount, term and scope of change.
- b) the occurrence of force majeure, preventing the execution of the subject of the Contract, whereby the Bidder shall be obliged to inform the Ordering Party and specify the force majeure causing the inability to execute the contract on time, as well as indicate the impact that this event has had on the course of the contract execution
- c) the occurrence of circumstances, other than force majeure, preventing the execution of the subject of the Agreement, which the Parties, exercising due diligence, did not foresee at the conclusion of the Agreement and are not at fault of the Parties, e.g. the occurrence of changes in the Ordering Party's research process, occurrence of changes in the project assumptions,

- d) a change in the applicable legislation affecting the subject matter and terms of the contract and a change in the legal or factual situation of the Bidder and/or the Ordering Party resulting in an inability to perform the subject matter of the contract

The aforementioned changes may not constitute grounds for an increase in remuneration. Any of the aforementioned changes may be associated with a reduction in remuneration.

2.3 The Ordering Party shall allow technical and technological changes in the execution of the subject matter of the Contract, with its prior consent, in the event that:

- a) the unavailability on the market of the materials or equipment indicated in the offer due to the cessation of production or withdrawal from the market of those materials or equipment;
- b) the appearance on the market of newer-generation materials or equipment enabling savings in the costs of implementing the subject of the Order;
- c) the need to perform the subject of the Agreement using other technical or material solutions due to changes in applicable law.

The aforementioned changes may not constitute grounds for an increase in remuneration. Any of the above changes may be associated with a reduction in remuneration.

2.4 If in the course of execution of the project carried out by the Ordering Party, the relevant Institution makes any recommendations concerning any changes to the Project affecting the scope of the Agreement, the Agreement may be amended to the extent corresponding to the changes in the Project

2.5 Forms of the amendment:

- a) Initiation of changes - at the written request of the Ordering Party and/or the Bidder (letter of information).
- b) Addendum to the contract with the Bidder in writing under pain of nullity.

Additionally, we may process data for archival and auditing purposes related to the expenditure of EU funds.
- 1.8. Your rights. In connection with processing of your personal data, you have the right to access your personal data and request its correction, deletion, or restriction of processing. You may also exercise your right to data portability, to the extent that the data is processed automatically for the purpose of performing a contract, and the right to object to the processing of your data, insofar as it is processed for the legitimate interests of Captor Therapeutics. Additionally, you have the right to lodge a complaint to the competent supervisory authority (which in Poland is the President of the Personal Data Protection Office).
- 1.9. Automated decision-making. We do not process your data in a manner that results in automated decision-making.

Annex no. 2

Ethical and anti-corruption clause

1. Prohibition of corrupt activities

- 1.1. The Parties declare that they shall not, and ensure that none of their personnel shall, in connection with the performance of the Agreement, promise, authorise or otherwise make any payment or otherwise provide any pecuniary or non-pecuniary benefit to third parties in a manner that violates applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery laws. Additionally, Parties declare that they shall not, and ensure that none of their personnel shall, in the performance of the Agreement, invoke their influence or position, including act as an intermediary in the settlement of a matter, in exchange for a pecuniary or personal benefit or the promise thereof.
- 1.2. The Parties undertake, and ensure that members of their personnel will be obliged, in connection with the performance of the Agreement, to comply with all applicable laws, rules or regulations (domestic, European or international) that prohibit corrupt activities, including but not limited to the International Chamber of Commerce's Rules on Combating Corruption, the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development's Due Diligence Guidelines for the Responsible Business Conduct, and any other applicable anti-corruption laws, rules or regulations.
- 1.3. The Contractor declares that it has familiarised itself with Captor Therapeutics' Anti-Corruption Policy and Captor Therapeutics S.A. Code of Ethical Conduct (available at: <https://captortherapeutics.com/investor-relations/corporate-documents-and-governance/corporate-documents>), as well as undertakes and guarantees that members of its personnel, suppliers and service providers will comply with the principles and standards listed therein.

2. Compliance with human rights and respect for workers' rights

- 2.1. The Parties observe and fulfil all their obligations that arise from the national and/or European and/or international legal and/or regulatory provisions applicable to them regarding the identification of risks and prevention of serious violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms, health and safety of persons within the scope of their activities.
- 2.2. The Parties observe and fulfil their obligations under national, European or international laws and regulations concerning the protection of labour rights, including but not limited to: prohibition of forced labour and child labour, combating discrimination, ensuring decent working conditions, including decent wages, respect for the right of association.
- 2.3. The Contractor declares that it has familiarised itself with Captor Therapeutics' Anti-Discrimination Policy and Captor Therapeutics Code of Ethical Conduct (available at: <https://captortherapeutics.com/investor-relations/corporate-documents-and-governance/corporate-documents>). The Contractor undertakes and guarantees that members of its personnel as well as its suppliers and service providers will comply with the principles and standards listed in the aforementioned documents.

3. Information obligation

The Parties shall promptly inform each other of any facts of which they become aware that could invalidate or change any of the statements contained in points 1, 2.

4. Agreement termination

The Contractor confirms that it is aware that its compliance with the clauses indicated in points 1, 2 is a key condition for the Company to cooperate with the Contractor. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, if the Company becomes aware of the Contractor's violation of the above clauses, the Company shall be entitled to terminate any agreements concluded with the Contractor upon notice with immediate effect. Subject to the rights acquired by the Parties prior to the termination referred to in the preceding sentence, the Company shall not be liable to the Contractor for remuneration, monetary reimbursement or other compensation connected with the occurrence of costs, claims or damages resulting directly or indirectly from the fact that the Contractor has violated the above clauses.
